“The seats in the vicinity of Chippenham are:

Spy Park, the seat of SIR EDWARD BAYNTUN, Bart. About 3 miles distant, and on the right of the road to Devizes

Draycot House, belonging to SIR JAMES TYLNEY LONG, Bart. A most delightful country residence, about 4 miles distant

Langley House, the seat of ROBERT ASHE Esq. 2 miles distant

Hardenhuish House, now in the occupation of ROBERT PRESTIN Esq. about 1 mile distant

Contiguous to Chippenham, the Ivy House, belonging to and in the possession of MATTHEW HUMPHRYS Esq

About half a mile further on the Bath Road, Rowden Hill House, occupied by MRS LONG, the only surviving sister to SIR JAMES

About 2 miles along the road to Laycock is Notten House, the seat of JOHN AWDRY Esq

A little to the left, Lackham House, the seat of JAMES MONTAGU Esq

Mouncton House, the seat of ESMEAD ELDRIDGE Esq is only separated from Chippenham by the River Avon, and a gradually sloping lawn terminated by the building, of which there is a pleasing view from one of the streets near the churchyard

4 miles from Chippenham is Laycock Abbey, the seat of the COUNTESS of SHREWSBURY”

NB

Spye Park is still there on the road between Derry Hill & Bowden Hill/Lacock..

Langley House is immediately behind the church of Langley Burrell on the Langley Road from Chippenham out to Sutton Benger.

Hardenhuish House is now in the grounds of Hardenhuish Secondary School on Hardenhuish Lane.

Ivy House is still there just off the Bridge Centre Roundabout at the end of the western part of the A4 behind large gates.

Rowden Hill House is also still in Chippenham behind Rowden Doctors Surgery on the A4 beside the Hospital.

Notton House is still along the A350 to Melksham on the right before Lacock – now a private school.

Lackham House is just a bit further back towards Chippenham on the same road (on the left) now an agricultural college.

Monkton House is in the centre of Chippenham at the far end of Monkton Park beyond the Olympiad swimming Pool (beside the river by the Pitch & Putt golf Course).

Lacock Abbey is very much still there and now retained by the National Trust (as is the whole village). It is often used for film & TV (most notably the Harry Potter feature films)

Draycot House (built in 1784 and demolished soon after the Second World War) would have been near the sharp right hand bend going along Langley Road from Pew Hill at the top end of Chippenham towards Sutton Benger. Kilvert mentions the LONG family's downfall (the owners) in his diaries.
